SIX SHELTON STUDENTS were selected by Dr. Bethany Engle to exhibit during the recent AJCCA conference in mobile. The art exhibit was composed of student works from all of Alabama two-year schools. The students selected included Lisa Brown, Pam McTyeire, Pamela Winters, Carole Johnson, Robert Brown and Deb Gibbons. A drawing by Winters and a ceramics piece of Gibbons were selected by Frank Engle, professor emeritus, the University of Alabama Department of Art, and Professor James Kennedy, chairman of the University of South Alabama Department of Art, to hang in the Chancellor's office in Montgomery..

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER QUARTER AT THE JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION IS SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY, JUNE 9, 1986. CLASSES WILL BEGIN ON JUNE 10.

BROWN SELECTED FOR UP WITH PEOPLE

KEVIN BROWN, SHELTON STUDENT and a member of the Shelton Singers has been selected by the national organization, Up with People, to perform during the 1986-87 season. Kevin, who is a freshman law major and a member of the Afro-American Cultural Association, will tour with the 300 member group all over the world for ten months. Up With People is often used as a public relations vehicle for the United States, according to Glinda Blackshear, Shelton vocal instructor.

Brown has entertained during the Miss Shelton State Pageant and recently played a part in "Bye Bye Birdie." Brown will join Up With People in July.

SHELTON INSTRUCTOR HONORED

Alan Blackshear, part-time music instructor with Shelton State, was honored recently with a world premiere of his composition, "Vulcan Overture," during a performance by the Tuscaloosa Symphony Orchestra. The twelve minute work was written in late 1985 and orchestrated this spring. Blackshear currently is teaching at the University of Alabama while working on a Doctorate in Music Composition Degree.
